MODERN SLAVERY ACT STATEMENT

Introduction

We are committed to eliminating acts of modern-day slavery and human trafficking within our business and from within our supply chains.

Our annual turnover is under £36 million and although we are not legally obliged to report on slavery and human trafficking, this statement is made in accordance with section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and is our slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending December 2020.

Organisational structure, business and supply chains

We are a supplier of IT services to a range of sectors throughout the UK, Europe, Middle East and Africa.

Our business comprises a UK limited company and a wholly owned subsidiary in Cyprus.

We have a diverse supply chain that spans a wide variety of goods and services from suppliers that are both national and international.

Policy on slavery and human trafficking

This policy reflects our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships and to implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere within our supply chains.

We consider ourselves to be a 'low risk' business with regard to slavery and human trafficking, however, we foster a culture that encourages the identification and reporting of any such risks within our business. We recruit all our employees either directly or through recruitment agencies. The Group checks that all staff can demonstrate their eligibility to work

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking and the Group has a clear framework of rules and behaviours and encourages the reporting of any concerns or breaches so that they can be dealt with appropriately in accordance with our policies and procedures.. This includes a whistleblowing policy to enable individuals to report any suspected instances of slavery or human trafficking that may be identified.
